CHARACTER

5TH -12TH GRADES

4. Think of the last time you felt angry or upset about something. How did you respond? Do you think this was a good response, or would you do something differently next time? Why or why not?

5. Think of a rule or law that you disagree with. As one individual in a large society, do you choose to obey, ignore or protest it? Explain your choice.

Character: • decision making grounded in a clear sense of right and wrong; • valuing diversity and acting selflessly for the good of an individual or others; • being honest, • acting out of "moral emotions" rather than snap judgements or inflammatory emotions; • respecting laws and authority; and • consistently aligning your actions and values. People of strong moral character do the right thing even when it is not easy.

8. Overall, I have optimal level of character.
